4 Pillars of Navigating Life

Navigate Life Roadmap

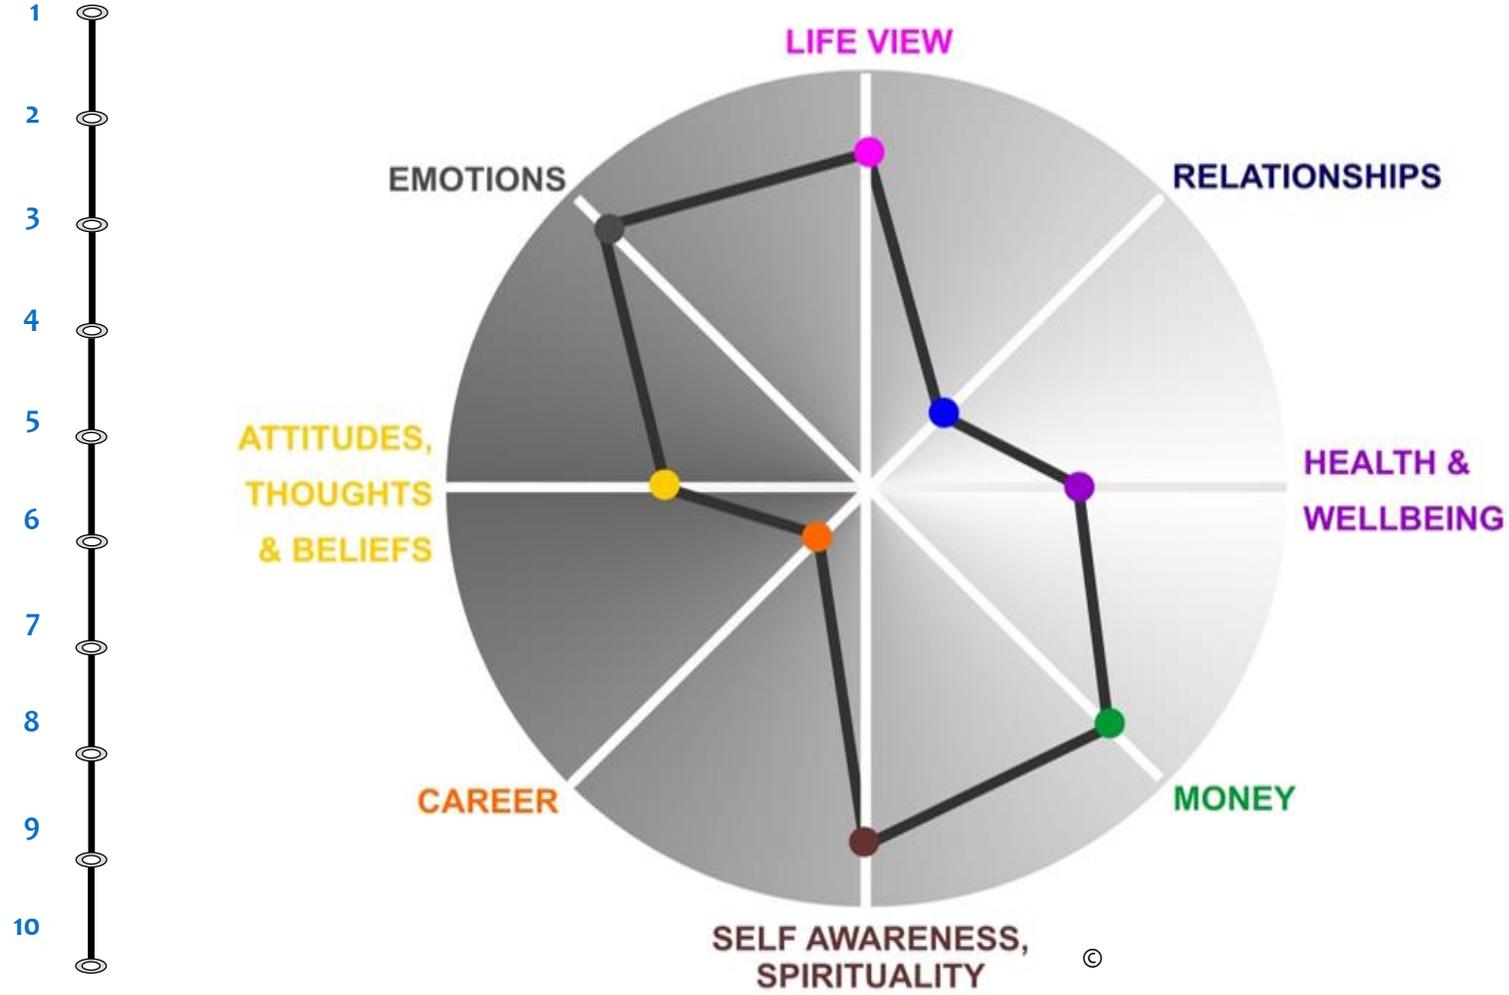

Parked vs Navigating Life

PARKED	NAVIGATING
You view circumstances as a challenge instead of an opportunity to learn and grow.	You act through inspiration, not perspiration.
You're frustrated in relationships, perhaps looking for a way out. The other person is the problem - not you.	You appreciate the world reflects back your current reality. Change within and without follows.
You may have a cynical outlook about the world, since there's always evidence to substantiate it.	You're optimistic as a result of your beliefs; you attract the ideal circumstances in life.
Money is hard to come by. You live from pay cheque to pay cheque. It seems to slip through your fingers.	You are a conscious creator. Money flows into your life easily and effortlessly when you're in alignment with your purpose.
You're scared and removed from anything which you cannot see. "See it before you believe it."	You're open and receptive to the flow of information, ideas & events in your life. "You believe it, then begin to see evidence of it materialise."

Health Comparison

Daily	Parked You find it hard to let go of the day's stress in order to unwind and rejuvenate.	Navigating You look forward to exercise and/or movement on a regular basis. You feel energised, alive post exercise.
Weekly	Parked You're often in a stress-like state, which you're unable navigate your way out of.	Navigating Your body looks and feels young, with a sense of increased energy and vitality.
Monthly	Parked Stress is now chronic. You gravitate toward drinking at night in order to relax and sleeping pills to help you sleep.	Navigating You have a well defined physique with the right balance of muscle to fat.
Yearly	Parked Stress disrupts your health. You may be on the verge of developing an illness, having ignored the warning signs.	Navigating Your body composition and proportion rarely changes. You maintain good overall tone, muscle and immunity.
